ABOUT

Tim followed his family's tradition when he elected to pursue law as a career. His first ten years as a lawyer were spent in a small fire and explosion litigation firm with a national practice. Since then, he has worked on a wide variety of tort and contract litigation claims, including fire, explosion, construction, vaccine, and commercial transportation. Tim enjoys the challenge of creating "out-of-the-box" solutions for his clients.

When not practicing law, Tim enjoys spending time with his wife, two daughters, and friends. He loves the outdoors, particularly biking in and around the Twin Cities. Tim is also an avid traveler and he has trekked Nepal and fly-fished for Atlantic salmon in the Scottish Highlands, and experienced the good food of Provence. As soon as one trip is over, Tim is often researching for the next adventure.
